Quick Quotes

Q. Hinako, final day 66. Take me through the rebound.

HINAKO SHIBUNO: 11 strokes from yesterday. It's getting better. But I change my mind a little bit, and, yeah, it got better.

Q. What did you focus on specifically as you made your way through the final day here?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: This is the last day of the Mission Hills and I was just trying to play my best.

Q. You made the turn after two bogeys and delivered four birdies in those next five holes. What was going so right there as you made the turn?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: So I had three birdies in a row on the front nine and three birdies in a row in the back nine, and I couldn't get the birdie 18, but with this wind I did okay. My shot was decent.

Q. I would agree. The last time at Mission Hills. What does it mean to you to be able to be doing so well at yet another major championship?

HINAKO SHIBUNO: This was my third time in Mission Hills and I was always thinking about playing my best at the major championship, and I did okay -- I mean, I did great today.

It's always nice to be here and to get points for CME Globe. Yeah, doing great on the major championship is more my priority, so I did okay.
