

The Chevron Championship

Friday, April 19, 2024

The Woodlands, Texas, USA

The Club at Carlton Woods

Atthaya Thitikul

TV

Q. It was as though she never left. Even though it's her first event the season, right at the top of the leaderboard. What's been the biggest adjustment for you getting back out here on tour?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: I think the mindset was kind of change after, you know, injury and then stay in my hometown. So I kind of have a lot of the time with my family, my friends out there. And then, yeah, it's kind of relax.

And coming back being just like just be able to play golf again just the most important things more than everything.

Q. You played really well in this event last year. Right there in the mix down to the 72nd hole. What did you learn last year that can help you here this weekend?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: I mean, like the course here always challenging course for me. This past two days kind of play quite easier than last year because the wind is more less than last year.

I mean, like last year I had a pretty good finishing, like Top 5 I guess. Yeah, feel good to be here in Texas maybe because I also have a house in Dallas, too.

I drove here. It's not that far. So I think seems like a (indiscernible.)

FastScripts by ASAP Sports