Quick Quotes

Q. Joining us after the second round is Ronni Yin. Ronni, this was your best round you've ever had at The Chevron Championship. What was going well for you out there?

RUONING YIN: I think today I just -- I mean, today and yesterday I just play really patiently and I mean, this course is really long. I think for me, able to make up and downs is crucial, so I'm just really proud of myself being patient.

Q. You had a bit of a quiet start to the year. How does it feel to be up there in the mix right now?

RUONING YIN: I'm sorry?

Q. You've had a quiet start to the year. How does it feel to be putting up a low score and in the mix at the first major of the season?

RUONING YIN: Well, I think my game, I mean, comparing to last year this time when I play the Asian Swing, I feel like my game is not as rusty as past years.

So I just think every part of my game is getting better every day, so I'm just quite happy where I am right now.

Q. And then looking ahead to the weekend, what's going to be really important to be successful at this golf course?

RUONING YIN: Well, I mean Nelly is already 13-under, so I think I just need to play my game and just keep being patient and just make birdie whenever I have chance.
