Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Yan Liu after the final round of The Chevron Championship. Yan, great playing all week. Solo fourth finish. How do you feel about your week?

YAN LIU: I think this week I just have very solid golf and I think the course I love this course setup. Everything kind of match might have game and I play very patient whole week, and even I have some mistake. But I very good fought to get back.

Q. What did you find today? Obviously lowest round of the week so far. Were you a little bit more aggressive today with nothing to lose?

YAN LIU: No, actually not. I think same last couple days. Today my putting is better than. I feel my approach shot going so well this week.

Q. Kind of cool and you Ronni are in the Top 5 in a major championship. I'm not sure how many times that's happened for China. How proud does that make you to represent your country in such a good way?

YAN LIU: Well, I think because we only have third player win on LPGA, I think my goal is win -- bring more trophy to China.

I think I will do my best and I think every Chinese player, they work really hard and try their best.

Q. How does this finish set you up for the rest of the season in terms of your confidence?

YAN LIU: Well, I think this year I prepare very good. I do more work out. I think everything is going well.
