Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Anna Davis after what was a pretty successful week here at the Palos Verdes Championship presented by Bank of America. Just assess your week overall.

ANNA DAVIS: It's been a really fun experience I would say. Yeah, overall it's been really fun. Super good experience, and it's something I look forward to doing in my future.

So glad that I got to see a little sneak peek this week.

Q. What did you learn about yourself?

ANNA DAVIS: I don't know. I had a pretty tough week today. I didn't play that well. Like nothing about my game was really that great this week, but I would say just staying like -- staying together just mentally.

Like especially on the second day for sure, knowing that I had to do something and then getting it done to make the cut was nice.

Q. What did you learn from playing alongside some of the best players in the world?

ANNA DAVIS: It's cool. They're all very focused. They take it obviously very seriously because this is their job, how they make their money. Some people don't really see that. They're just like, oh, they're out here to play golf.

No. This is how they make their living. I think obviously they're very focused and it's obviously a little different from junior and amateur golf.

Q. Like I said, probably not the round you wanted to end the week on, but overall would you consider it a success? And why or why not?

ANNA DAVIS: Yeah, I think so. For my first LPGA event I would say making the cut is a pretty good accomplishment.

Q. How much more prepared do you feel now going into Cognizant Founders Cup and those three major sponsor exemptions?

ANNA DAVIS: I think a little more prepared because I know what to expect now. I think if I can get my game together then it'll be a good week at New Jersey.
