Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Ariya Jutanugarn. Solid round today. 5-under. What was working so well for you?

ARIYA JUTANUGARN: I think my iron is pretty good today. You know, like second shot to the green is pretty good. I miss few tee shot and my putting was okay. Still have something to work on.

Q. Heading into the weekend 9-under right now. T6 at the moment. Could change a little bit. Still a few back from the lead. What's the game plan for Saturday and Sunday?

ARIYA JUTANUGARN: Nothing much from me. Just going to keep working on same stuff I've been working on. I feel like I still have so much thing to improve with my commitment and my putting.

Q. I know you work with Pia and Lynn, but how do you work on that commitment on the course?

ARIYA JUTANUGARN: It's tough, especially when you not have a good year, so you're thinking about the outcome more and more.

And you just to come back and only focus on myself. I've been talking to them all the time, you know, call them before the round.

Q. Heading into tomorrow specifically, what did you kind of learn today? Obviously the golf course is drying up a little bit. Not too much though.

ARIYA JUTANUGARN: Actually the course is get like much, much better. I think it's in a great condition right now, yeah.

Q. What were you pleased with the first two days that you'll carry with you as you move forward?

ARIYA JUTANUGARN: Oh, I would say I'm really happy about the course, because like first time we like got here on Monday I feel like it's going to be so tough.

But the maintenance team do a great job and the rule official been like doing a great job, so, you know, nothing much, expect anything. The course going to get better and better every day.
