Quick Quotes

Q. Here with Sarah Kemp. Sara, just overall what has your experience been like over the last four days in Cincinnati?

SARAH KEMP: It's been awesome. I was pleasantly surprised to see how many people came out. The crowds were awesome. Had kind of a mini major feel to it, which was super cool. The yelling and screaming on the last supporting us was awesome.

I love the golf course. It was a shame about the weather. But no, everything has been great. Food was awesome. I played okay.

Q. What's a week like this do for your confidence with a few events left in the season?

SARAH KEMP: Yeah, this is huge. I was 100 on CME, so I won't be anymore, which is great. It's a little pressure taken off going into the last few events. Not many now.

So it's exactly what I needed to do and I did it, so it was great.

Q. How satisfied are you with the fact that you did up your ranking in the Race to the CME Globe? That has to be on your mind over the last couple events.

SARAH KEMP: Yeah, it has. I've been lingering around the 90 to 100 for quite a while. I've been playing okay, but the way that the points system works, like last year I had three Top 10s and that's what really shot me up the CME points list.

I knew I needed a good finish coming in. Yeah, top 10 is just awesome to start finishing out the year. Really cool.

Q. Definitely an exhausting four days of dealing with the weather, the different conditions out there. What do you take from your game as we head into the last couple events?

SARAH KEMP: Yeah, I'm playing great. It's funny, yeah, too, because I played pretty good last week and missed the cut by two. It's a funny game. I stayed really patient this week and didn't panic by missing the cut last week. I rolled it great and they just didn't go in; this week some did.

No, I'm playing good. Yeah, there are a few events left. Now the next goal is to try and get into CME. Couple more high finishes, and, yeah, that would be nice. That's the plan.
