Q. Here with Peiyun Chun after the first round of the Kroger Queen City Championship. Great playing today. You had several birdies out there. Can you tell us about those birdies?

PEIYUN CHUN: I play very well in my par-5s. Have a lot of chance to get close to the green and it's pretty close to green and I have pretty good up and down, so I make a lot of birdie on par-5.

Q. Was your driving really great today? Were you able to hit it pretty far on those par-5s to be able to reach them in two?

PEIYUN CHUN: My driver is pretty good today. Just commit my target and just hit it, because I get cold two days ago so not comfortable now.

So I know I only have one shot, so I just commit one shot and just hit it.

Q. And this is your lowest round of the year so far. What does that mean to you, how hard you've been working?

PEIYUN CHUN: I think I always work very hard, but the mental game is always tougher to be yourself.

So just have more confidence with every shot, and trust it and hit it.

Q. And you played here last year. Was there anything you were thinking about heading into this week?

PEIYUN CHUN: Last year I didn't play well because we don't have any practice round and I didn't play well, so I have a lot of notes next year to know how to play the green.

It's not just go for it. Have to play some hole just middle of
