Q. All right, here with Yuka Saso after her second round at the Kroger Queen City Championship. Great round today.

YUKA SASO: Thank you.

Q. How would you compare today's round to yesterday's round?

YUKA SASO: Well, we played in the afternoon yesterday and morning today. I thought it would be a little bit softer on the greens but we didn't have any rain, so it got firmer, which I think was a little bit more difficult than yesterday.

Other than that, I just had fun and playing alongside Paula and Matilda.

Q. Was there anything different in your game that stood out today? Putting? Fairways? Greens?

YUKA SASO: I think my putting was better today than yesterday, yeah.

Q. Several birdies out there. Can you walk me through some of those birdies?

YUKA SASO: Yeah. I don't really remember. (Laughter.)

Q. That's fine. Several birdies. That's okay. You said your putting was good. Did you make any long putts out there?

YUKA SASO: My longest putt that I made, probably seven paces. Not too far. I think I gave myself good chances today, and got the chances, too.

Q. And then heading into the weekend, after today's round what are you looking to do this weekend?

YUKA SASO: Just trying to be patient and trying to keep

ASAP . . . when all is said, we're done.®
