Quick Quotes

Q. I'm here with Ruoning Yin after the second round at the Kroger Queen City Championship. A nice 66 today. Bogey-free 66 nonetheless. Can you walk us through your round?

RUONING YIN: Today my tee shot actually was not quite good. I only had seven or eight fairways, but my approach shot was pretty solid. Leave myself a lot of birdie chance, and putting is quite good, too.

Q. And did you find yourself in a lot of rough out there today kind of trying to scramble to get to the green?

RUONING YIN: Yeah, a lot of roughs and a lot of bunkers. But, yeah, I think my recovery shot from the bunkers and rough is what was pretty solid.

Q. And heading into the weekend near the top of the leaderboard. Any goals you have for yourself?

RUONING YIN: I think I'm only four shots behind. I mean, I will make birdie as much as I can. Just try to stay with the same strategy and stick with my game.

I think will be fine.

Q. And you found yourself at the top of the leaderboard a lot recently. Do you think that has helped your comfortability being here the top?

RUONING YIN: Yeah, definitely. I think I'm more confident to play whatever course it is right now. Just like I said, I just need to stick with my game and, yeah.
