Q. All right, joined by Lottie Woad after her final round here at the Kroger Queen City Championship presented by P&G. Looking like a 5 finish for you this week. What went well for you?

LOTTIE WOAD: Yeah, it was good. I think it's probably going to be third in the end. I gave it a good run on the front nine, got up there and kind of slowed down a little bit.

Played well today and just pretty aggressive, so happy with that.

Q. You're obviously a few more starts now into your professional career. Anything felt different? Have you done anything different since your first start in Scotland?

LOTTIE WOAD: I don't think I've done too much different. I think I've just been working out how to navigate the practice days; like we get a few more practices than we do in amateur stuff.

So just not overdoing it playing 18 every day. Just managing that and make sure I conserve energy a little bit. Been good the last few events.

Q. Coming down the final stretch of the season, what are some of the goals you're looking to achieve as the season comes to a close?

LOTTIE WOAD: Yeah, got a few more events and playing some in Asia so that will be cool. Never really been over there much. And also just want to be playing in the final Tour Championship, so that's the aim.

Q. Is there at this country in particular in the fall-Asia swing you're looking forward to most seeing?

LOTTIE WOAD: I don't know. Maybe Malaysia. I've heard that's a good one. I'm looking forward to the ones in
