Quick Quotes

Q. Entered your week here with a 6-under 65 out there. What did you find today that was different maybe than the first three days?

CHELLA CHOI: Played a pretty good round today, but I can't remember the first three days, but today was very good. My shot and my putting was very good. I really good making my putting speed today, so I made a lot of birdies today.

Q. Any of those birdies really stand out in particular? The one on the 18th was pretty solid.

CHELLA CHOI: Yeah, it's very exciting after I made the putt, and I really good read the line with my father and made it.

Q. Is your dad on the bag this week?

CHELLA CHOI: Yes.

Q. What's that been like to have him carrying the golf clubs?

CHELLA CHOI: My father and me have a lot of experience in here, so we know this golf course, and we're very excited to play together. Thanks to my father.

Q. Being able to shoot one of the low rounds of the week today, what does that tell you about how your game is right now?

CHELLA CHOI: I played afternoon yesterday, and today is morning, and greens very calm, and very calm, too, fairway and not much rain. That's why I play really good and I trying to keep calm and I try to make birdies, and very solid round.
