Quick Quotes

Q. All right, here with Atthaya after her final round at the Mizuho Americas Open. Just talk a little bit about the week that you had after these four rounds.

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: I mean, overall it's pretty good about this week. The mindset out there, the commitment that I have on the shot, and then also I mean, the result was turning to be really good for me.

I mean, like after last week I missed cut, and coming on this week, being up on top of the leaderboard on the second day which is really, you know, like fun and then get me more like boost of confident for me.

Q. Talk a little bit about how you reset after last week. I mean, top 10 finish looking like right now.

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: Yeah, so it's just really bringing the fire on me. I mean, last week I'm just like -- my mind just like -- I think I did everything good except the putt doesn't drop any hole at all, I mean, to be honest, last week.

Yeah, change my putter back. I think what I improved this week, it's my putter. It's, you know, like a lot, a lot better than yesterday or -- not yesterday, sorry -- last week.

And also like before. A lot better than before I guess. Still have a little bit to work on it, but overall I take it all for this week. After missing cut, but like come here on top of the leaderboard, really good sign.

Q. What are you looking forward to most next week for the break?

ATTHAYA THITIKUL: My coach coming from Thailand. He will be in Dallas, I mean, tomorrow, and then we'll have some work on it and then just grinding for -- not just for major, but I think for the whole season as well.
