Quick Quotes

Q. Jasmine, 66; beautiful crowds out there, and that was a fantastic back nine from you, highlighted with an eagle on 12.

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: Yes, definitely. Today was a little slow to start with, and I just tried to give myself opportunity to make birdies. When 12 coming in, I hit a pretty good shot and makes an eagle on 12.

Q. It's interesting, you've never had a real coach for your game. I know your dad has been a huge influence but you're pretty much self-taught.

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: Yeah, yes. Well, I start because of my dad, and then we keep playing, getting to National Team, play for Thailand, and since I'm 17 and I have to be here by myself, traveling, so my dad -- my parents still in Thailand, yeah.

Q. But taught by yourself. What are the key swing thoughts going into the weekend?

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: Have fun. Just have fun and be free and everything will be okay. And then, yeah, we'll make some birdies and have fun.

Q. You've got two stars. What are the two stars for?

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: It's two winnings on the LPGA here.

Q. So you see the two stars here. So you do that every single day when you're playing?

JASMINE SUWANNAPURA: Yes, definitely. I actually have other things, too. I have heart, music notes and moons, I but just like the star. I had a little mole right there that I can put exactly the same every day, so everybody thought it was actually a real tattoo.

Q. If you keep going the way you are, you might well have three stars by Monday afternoon.
