Q. All right are here with Jin Young after first round, 7-under. Just talk about how you played out there today.

JIN YOUNG KO: I play solid. I hit it good, like from the tee to the green, so I made a lot of putt today, yeah.

Q. You took a while off. How does it feel to be back playing such good golf like this?

JIN YOUNG KO: Yeah, was so weird to play a game in the pressure last week. Now I realize this is the LPGA Tour and, yeah, that's it. Nothing special.

Q. What about your game today stuck out that really helped you?

JIN YOUNG KO: Well, I everything was good. I can't just pick one part of good things. Yeah, everything was good.

Q. And you played in this tournament before. What do you like most about this golf course? What do you remember from this golf course before?

JIN YOUNG KO: Oh, my God, I played this golf course was 2018, so was six years ago. I can't remember anything. I remember only thing I was I had good dinner with my parents sukiyaki and curries, everything, so that's good memory to me.

Q. Last stretch of the season what are you looking forward to most?

JIN YOUNG KO: I mean, I have only three more tournament left, so I want to finish strong and looking for the 2025 season already.
