BLUE BAY LPGA

蓝湾大师赛

Q. All right, I'm here with Ruixin after her second round at the Blue Bay LPGA. Talk about your round. You had 1-under, 71 today.

RUIXIN LIU: Yeah, it's quite tough condition today. It's very windy and the pin location is much harder than yesterday, so I didn't have as much chance as yesterday for birdies. But my short game, it's all right, so I'm able to save some pars.

Q. And after your round you had a lot of media waiting to ask you questions. What's it like to be here and have the support?

RUIXIN LIU: You know, I almost never play well enough to have this type of treatment in China, so this is the first time and I'm so glad I'm able to perform the way I wanted in front of the home crowd.

So I'm very happy.

Q. Were there a lot of fans out there watching you cheering you on?

RUIXIN LIU: Yeah. They're very supportive.

Q. You mentioned yesterday your elbow feeling a little funny. How are you feeling and maintaining that, especially head into the weekend?

RUIXIN LIU: It's been three months, so I'm a little tired. I'm going to try to grab some sleep. My elbow wasn't really cooperating the last few holes, so I'm hoping PT can help me with that later today.

Q. You finished earlier today. Anything you're hoping to do the rest of the afternoon while you have some time?

RUIXIN LIU: I'm going to take a nap and come back for some putting.
