CHAMPIONSHIP

Q. All right, I'm here with Jin Young Ko after a 5-under round. Tell me a little bit about the round today and how was the course different from yesterday?

JIN YOUNG KO: Course was very similar. I mean, the weather was really nice. So, I mean, I hit it really well today and also yesterday as well.

I don't know, putt better than yesterday, so I made more par putt so I could, yeah.

Q. The golf course, does it feel pretty challenging this week?

JIN YOUNG KO: I think so. The course is not easy, but it's okay. Yeah, if hit fairways and greens it's going to be make a lot of birdies. Yeah, like Haeran.

Q. How is everything feeling body-wise and what's your game feeling like this week? What's good about it?

JIN YOUNG KO: It's good. This is my four weeks in a row so I'm little tired. I think I need to take a sleep like over ten hours every day.

So it's okay, yeah.

Q. Last question: Back in contention; for you, as you head into Saturday, what are the goals for yourself tomorrow?

JIN YOUNG KO: Well, just I want to make birdies on par-5s. That's my goal.

Q. I lied. This is the last question: You saw Haeran's round today, 10-under. Did you see that sort of number out here this week?

JIN YOUNG KO: I didn't see. I saw her score after round. Yeah, very impressive to play 10-under, yeah.
