Q. Joined by Gaby Lopez after her final at the Riviera Maya Open at Mayakoba. Gaby, can you just talk about what this week means to you overall playing in front of your home crowds here in Mexico?

GABY LOPEZ: Yeah, this week has been -- it's the most special week on Tour for me. I love coming here. I love having so many little girls and boys and the crowds are amazing.

So I feel all the support. I feel all the warmth. Even though I didn't have my best this weekend, I gave it all. Very proud how I keep fighting. Energy got a little bit just down on today's round, but very, very happy with playing in Mexico once again.

Q. You mentioned the energy and support. After your round we had some fans chanting your name. How nice is it to hear no matter what you do out there they're going to have your back and keep encouraging you?

GABY LOPEZ: Yeah, it's awesome. You know, it's not about the score. It's not about the number. It's about how many girls and boys can get inspired by this sport once again.

So I'm very, very happy that there is a bunch of girls and little boys just looking up to us, and hopefully one day we can see them on Tour in a couple years.
