Q. Wildens, what are the emotions right now, not just tonight but thinking about the whole season, what you have been through this year?

WILDENS LEVEQUE: Emotions all over the place. Just got to look ahead, get more confident, prepared.

Q. It was a tough season this year, and you had to go through a lot of adversity. What can you take from this and learn from this experience that will help you next season and later on in life?

WILDENS LEVEQUE: That's for sure. Next season, life, everything. Just growing through a challenge. You got to handle it and just get better, more experience.

Q. You guys have obviously had some struggles this year. The season didn't go the way you wanted it to. With the issues you faced especially on the court, do you feel they're fixable problems, things you could easily correct going into next season?

WILDENS LEVEQUE: Yeah, I feel like it's for sure definitely fixable going into next season.

Q. How do you go about fixing it? What do you have to do this off-season?
