Q. Baseball players are always talking about flushing the last game and moving on to the next. You all have been in this situation before, obviously. How tough is this? Going to make any difference in that regard for you guys?

JOSH McALLISTER: To the next game? You know, everyone has bad games. We definitely didn't play our best baseball tonight, and we know that. Coach Stricklin knows that. He talked to us after the game. It's time to clean up. We've done that all year. We're a bounceback team. Hopefully, we can come out here tomorrow and play our best baseball.

Q. I know you got the base hit with the two outs in the seventh inning. Was it good to not get the perfect game?

JOSH McALLISTER: I think it's good to not get the perfect game on any given day in baseball. I was struggling. It was nice to get on base in this tournament.
