Q. Hunter, your thoughts on getting a win but also you seem to have a nice connection with Mac. Take us through what you guys were doing as an offense, especially late in that game?

HUNTER HENRY: First off, it's good to talk to you guys after a win. I feel like I've been talking to you last couple weeks after some tough ones. So it's good to be on the other side of it. Yeah, it was, you know, I felt like in the first half, we played really well offensively. We moved the ball up and down the field, the fumble was very costly obviously. And then we came out the second half, stalled, threw the pick, not good. Three-and-out.

But other than those two drives and the fumble, we were consistently moving the ball. I felt like really good balance today. Mac stood back there and stood in the pocket really strong. So was proud of him and proud of the offensive lineman that had to step up in big roles.

Q. Damien said he's a tough son of a gun.

HUNTER HENRY: Yeah, he's tough. He stands in there. It says a lot to the older guys, guys that have been around, to be that young and stand in there and fire the ball it gives a lot of confidence to the receivers, tight ends and to the offensive lineman, too. He's doing a tremendous job.
