ZACH SIELER: To have that happen, it's gut wrenching. But I think you've got to rally around that and do what we can do to keep playing. I hope he's all right. We'll keep praying.

ZACH SIELER: I think as a team we did good. We definitely left some things out there, and I think obviously there were some things we need to clean up. It wasn't good on all three phases. But all in all, I think we had a good plan. We've just got to execute.

Q. Realizing you're disappointed about the season (indiscernible)?

ZACH SIELER: Yeah, I'm not here to speculate. Obviously maybe some more things are out of our control, but we can control what we can control from here on. That's all we can do. We're in this position now, and now we've got to play out and win the rest of these games.
