Q. Just walk us through the day and how much fun you were having out there with these kids.

JASON MOORE: It was awesome. We end up getting this young girl named Maddie, and at the beginning of the day, she was a little bit shy and we finally got her going. Got her on the merry-go-round and shot off from there. The alligators -- she was able to pet a little albino alligator we got for her. She was having a blast with the roller coasters, tea cup ride, all of that. And spending time with the guys, it's an awesome time.

Q. What was your favorite ride?

JASON MOORE: Probably this one right over here called the Freedom Flyer. Reminds me of the ride at Six Flags called Batman. Kind of like a smaller version of that.

Q. This is the last time you guys will be together as a team. How much are you soaking that in being with these guys one last time?

JASON MOORE: Taking time in the moment, especially being a senior and being with the guys, like you said, one last hoorah all the blood sweat and tears with the guys that you bond with, it's been awesome.

Q. Is there one ride you refuse to go to on?

JASON MOORE: Probably that SkyCoaster. Outside of that, anything else is good.
