Catherine Park

Quick Quotes

Q. Great round today.

CATHERINE PARK: Thank you so much.

Q. Two eagles doesn't hurt anybody.

CATHERINE PARK: No, it does not.

Q. Can you talk us through 8 and 13 a little bit.

CATHERINE PARK: 8 and 13; missed two-footer for par but then on 7, came to 8, told my caddie it was a good distance, and then next thing you know it went in the hole.

And then 9 was just good number, good lie, and was just perfect shot in.

Q. Having a little bit of experience out here this year, does that change anything about your preparation or maybe your nerves?

CATHERINE PARK: For sure I was more nervous this year. Last year I didn't finish as well as I wanted to, so more of a redemption this week and the motivation that I needed that I came out. And also having my former teammate that shot 66 last year, channel her putting skills. This year was pretty good.

Q. Being in contention and coming off the course today, how big of a confidence boost is that for you going forward?

CATHERINE PARK: That's for sure a big confidence boost knowing I'm probably going to go to another tournament after this. So feel good about my game and where my head is at right now.

Q. When you woke up this morning, did you ever dream a of a 67 at Augusta National?

CATHERINE PARK: I did not. I also did not think of two eagles, but here we are and I'm very happy it happened.

Q. When you look back on the week and your experience here, what stands out?

CATHERINE PARK: Probably the crowd, the support, everything about the Augusta National in general, the ANWA, the preparation, everything for sure. Yes.
