Q. Just this moment and this moment of levity and enjoyment before everything kicks off tomorrow; watched your daughter point to someone and toss a ball at them. To see them in these moments and share them.

LUCAS GLOVER: Oh, it's amazing. Wednesday afternoon here is just such a tradition and so much fun. The kids, the families, and the wives that hit some shots and outdo their husbands sometimes. All those things are just great memories.

My kids look forward to it. Every time I'm in, they end up asking, can I caddie? And then I end up carrying the clubs, but it works. They do a heck of a job here as they do with everything else, so it's a lot of fun.

Q. And how it's changed as your kids have gotten older maybe?

LUCAS GLOVER: Of course. Watching Justin tee off a couple holes back with Molly and Jill, and we did that one time and I was like, wow, that was nine, ten years ago.

Yeah, we've all been there, the stages and the phases. It was carrying the kid and another wanting to hit shots. It was pretty cool.

Q. You're playing pretty well coming into the tournament this year. Back for your 11th year, just how you feel coming into this and ready to attack this one, especially with not the wind conditions we've talked about so many times hopefully.

LUCAS GLOVER: Yeah, exactly. Everybody feels good on Wednesday. So just wake up tomorrow, get in the right frame of mind and try to get off to a good start. That's all I can do.

Q. You've played it so many times, but we still come back to you every time as you're one of the local guys, just up the street. Just how that feeling and all of that around this is the Masters and the greatest stage.

LUCAS GLOVER: Grew up two hours from here and came here the first time in 1986. The history, the nostalgia that I appreciate and that I have when I come here is awesome.

At the same time, I've still got to play golf and try to do the best I can. Try to forget all that and the lore and mystique and still try to play good golf.

Q. You've been coming here a lot of years. Is there still excitement, anxiousness on Wednesday night?

LUCAS GLOVER: Yes.

Q. How would you describe today and tonight?

LUCAS GLOVER: I'm late tomorrow, so I'll get some rest this afternoon. I don't have to get right back.
