Q. What was that experience like for you?

DAVIS RILEY: It was awesome. It's just such a fun time to bring the wife out, have all my friends out. It's cool to see all the kids hanging around having a good time. It's a special way to start the week.

Q. You've obviously played a lot of tournaments on the world stage. How would you describe the anticipation on the eve of the Masters?

DAVIS RILEY: Exactly. You get that buzz, even starting on a Monday. It's such an amazing week. I'm trying to soak it all in. Super excited to get it all started tomorrow morning. Yeah, it's the best.

Q. You're getting an early start. You're hitting the first shot. What does that feel like?

DAVIS RILEY: Yeah, it will be interesting. It will be fun to be the person to get the Masters under way. Yeah, and a two ball, we'll be moving along pretty quickly.

I'm looking forward to getting that 1st tee shot under way and getting the competition started.

Q. Where were you when you found out you were hitting that first tee ball?

DAVIS RILEY: I knew I was in the first pairing. I just found out I'm hitting the first tee shot now. I'll prepare myself.

No, I'm looking forward to that walk to the 1st tee and getting the 2025 Masters tournament under way.

Q. Who's all here friends, family-wise?

DAVIS RILEY: I've got inlaws, a lot of close buddies from home and college. I've got probably 15 or 20 of my really close people in my circle. It's been a special week so far.
