Q. Tom, just how special was it to make a hole-in-one in the Par 3 Contest?

TOM HOGE: Yeah, it was cool. I made one a couple years ago, but just trying to appreciate these moments. I missed last year here, so it's cool to be back.

Never know if you'll be back again for this, but it's cool he was out here with me.

Q. How special was it your son was out there with you?

TOM HOGE: Yeah, it was great. I did pretty well, other than the couple holes he fell asleep and took off. I had a few bad yardages there, but, no, it was fun. We had a good time.

Q. In preparation here, just your thoughts heading into the week here at Augusta?

TOM HOGE: Excited. Every day that you wake up here is great. I get to come out and play this golf course. I'm looking forward to it.

The golf course changed quite a bit from yesterday to today. I expect the same going into tomorrow, so I know it will be a challenge out there, but it will be fun.

Q. How old is he?

TOM HOGE: 4 months. He did great today. So it was good.
