Q. So you were mentioning the invitations. When you go back, how important that was when you receive it and what did you make of it this week?

JOAQUÍN NIEMANN: Yeah, it's really special to be here every week obviously, but like the last two years has been a little bit more special, being invited from Augusta National to play here and kind of like represent them in a way.

It's been special. Yeah, always thankful for being here for them. Since I was an amateur here I would always enjoy and seen for the last five, six years all the progress on my game for all that time.

Yeah it's nice to be here. It's nice to see Latin American Amateur Championship doing well. Every time they have more and better players. Yeah, it's really special to be here.
