Q. (No microphone.)

LUDVIG ABERG: Oh, it's tricky, I mean, the back nine is probably the best back nine in golf where you will get opportunities. You will also have a few shots where you have to pull it off. It's difficult to predict.

One guy can get hot and all of a sudden you make four birdies and also make a few other ones as well. I assume it's going to be around 13. 13, 14, that would be my call.

Q. I appreciate your commitment?

LUDVIG ABERG: Thank you.
