Media Conference

Toronto 0, Philadelphia 0

Q. We said to John that that was a pretty poised, professional performance on the road. What did you think of the team tonight?

SIGURD ROSTED: Yeah, exactly that, super professional; a great, great, great first half where we created a lot of chances and should have scored.

And then of course at the end it was all about keeping the zero and getting the road points.

Q. Just how satisfying was it sort of this defensive performance just considering you guys had conceded ten goals over the last four games? Wonder if it's especially satisfying considering what's happened the last four games.

SIGURD ROSTED: Yeah, we were really focused on that on the pre-match meeting. We conceded a lot of balls lately, and beginning of the season we had a lot of clean sheets and we wanted to get back to those days again.

That was important. Of course playing on road that's the first thing you have to do to get a point, so that was satisfying.

Q. Sean Johnson made the one big save he had to tonight for you guys. What does it mean to a defending to know you have that kind of reliable...

SIGURD ROSTED: It means everything. It's really ensuring for us defending to know we have a strong hand in the back there. So we know we can rely on him and he's really, really big keeper. Heard something about his 100th clean sheet in regular season or something, so that's massive. That's great from him.

Q. It's been an absolutely wild month of May. A lot of football games. One more left to go before you guys get a little two weeks off. How are you going to spend your two weeks and what do you want from this final match in D.C.?

SIGURD ROSTED: I'm going to take some off with my family and see some friends and family. We don't focus on that now; we focus on the last push in D.C.

It's going to be a huge game. Hopefully a good performance like today and going to hopefully get the three points -- and score and get the three points instead of one point today.
