Darius Slayton

Press Conference

Q. Joe Judge was mentioning earlier that when Kadarius Toney was drafted, he made sure to check with Shep if it affects or doesn't affect him. You guys have added two receivers, Kadarius and also Kenny Golladay. Have you had any discussions with anybody about how that affects you and what do you make of this new receiver core? They obviously have a lot of talent?

DARIUS SLAYTON: I'm excited about all the guys, Casey and John Ross and kg. I'm excited about all the guys. I think you just take the more the merrier the mindset.

Q. No one has specifically come up to you and said, look, this affects you or doesn't affect you? Have you had any of those discussions with any of the coaches?

DARIUS SLAYTON: No.

Q. How different is your offense for you and even if you see any significant difference with Daniel considering you're in the second year in this specific scheme? Do you see a difference in knowledge and what you bring to the playbook?

DARIUS SLAYTON: All of us last year -- so there's familiarity coming in starting -- obviously been able to progress a little faster this summer than we did practice field.

Q. You and Daniel came through the same draft class, as someone who has seen him since the beginning, how much has Daniel grown?

DARIUS SLAYTON: I think he's grown tremendously, physically in his body, it's almost like this last off-season, he was all of a sudden jacked and actually had cuts in his arms and stuff. You know, he actually made a physical change and he's grown as a leader and just the guys -- as well as physically developing has become a better football player.

Q. You were asked a little earlier about all the additions and you said the more the merrier, do you have any concerns that you could be the guy that's pushed aside by this new group?

DARIUS SLAYTON: No, not really. I wouldn't really worry about it. I try to go out and be the best I can be and excited for what this team has in store.

Q. Can you sort of maybe find a different niche, a newer thing, and focus on something because of the other players that they brought in?

DARIUS SLAYTON: I don't know. I mean, right now I'm just focused on trying to make sure I learn all my assignments and make sure I'm ready for the next call.
