Quick Quotes

Q. How are you feeling after that?

CHARLEY HULL: Yeah, good. 8-under par for the last three rounds, so I feel like my game is in the right -- headed in the right. A shame about my first round but at the end of the day I had a good fight back, and my goal was to get back to level for par the week. So I missed it obviously by one.

Good shape for the next few weeks.

Q. You talked about your confidence levels and going into the British Open --

CHARLEY HULL: I feel a lot more confident now. I've been playing a lot of good golf at home. I think my last four rounds at home, I think I was 24-under par. So shooting one over the first round, that was more kind of nervous because I haven't played in five weeks and my shoulder and that.

But now I feel like I got my confidence back, and my golf game is as good as it's ever been.

Q. How good just to get four competitive rounds under your belt?

CHARLEY HULL: It's really important and I'm actually really excited. So I'm playing Turnberry on Monday, and I'm really excited for that. And I have The Scottish Open after that and the AIG Women's Open the following week. It's all good.

Q. Your second time being an Olympian. How have you enjoyed the Olympic experience overall?

CHARLEY HULL: It's been really good. It's been great seeing all the crowds out here, and it's nice to be so close to home.
