CAM SMITH: I think it was a bonus to even get in there, to be fair, sitting down for an hour and a bit.

It was fine. I did what I had to do. Obviously a shame to miss the putt there, but it is what it is.

Q. Good week I guess, in general?

CAM SMITH: Yeah, absolutely. The game's been feeling great the last couple months. I guess a good way to end the year without getting the win.

Q. That would size up the year.

CAM SMITH: Thanks for reminding me. I know. Sometimes all you can do is all you can do. It just seems like it's been that way for me this year.

I feel like when I've played really good golf, someone's been there to beat me. Just haven't quite got the breaks I guess you need to win golf tournaments. I can't wait for 2025.

Q. When you walked off at regulation, did you think -- what would you have said your percentage of getting in the playoffs?

CAM SMITH: I was thinking my percentage of having a top five was very slim. Yeah, it's a weird game sometimes. It's kind of lucky that there wasn't any beers in the clubhouse because I would have had a few, I think.

It's a weird game sometimes, and you never really know what's going to happen.
