Quick Quotes

THE MODERATOR: Exciting week this week. Just talk about your excitement being here, past champion. What's your favorite thing about the week?

HAROLD VARNER: Favorite thing about the week? I would say the memories of obviously winning. It was super cool. Yeah, that was like a big win. Got me to Augusta, so that was would be my favorite memory.

Obviously making the putt was pretty cool.

What was the other question?

Q. What it means for you to be back.

HAROLD VARNER: Yeah, it just rekindles the flame of good things happening and trying to figure out how to play golf. But haven't played in a while so it will be interesting for sure.

Q. You played in the pr-am today. How is the course looking?

HAROLD VARNER: It's in great shape. They've done a terrific job of just always improving every time we get here, and it's really good right now.

Q. And anything that you're excited about this week? Festival happening this week, four concerts. What does that mean for golf?

HAROLD VARNER: It brings people to golf that aren't really into golf, which is important. That will be interesting. LIV is doing a great job of that. Golf in general is doing a great job of that. People don't really care about golf that that. I don't think they did in the first place, but now you're being able to monetizing it and showcase a different side of golf.

Q. Big week for Golf Saudi.

HAROLD VARNER: A Lot of Golf Saudi people, like players. So, no, it's -- yeah, it's a big week. I think they are so heavily invested in golf and they want to see they're people do good that they're invested in. There is an obligation to go do well.
