Quick Quotes

Q. So you're playing your first?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Yes.

Q. How has it been? Were you very nervous today?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Yeah, first four or five holes, I was very nervous. I couldn't control my nerves. I was very tense. Once I settled in, my score started to get a little better. Just fantastic, great experience.

Q. Back nine was a lot more calm?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Much more, absolutely. Absolutely. I had a lot of fun.

Q. Have you got a lot of family and friends out?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Yeah, my wife is here following me, which has been fantastic. Absolutely. Some friends, of course, from the course and everything. It's been fun.

Q. You're looking forward to tomorrow?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Absolutely. I hope I do a little better tomorrow.

Q. Hopefully the nerves are gone?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: I hope so.

Q. This year we have seven players from Saudi Arabia in the field. That's quite special.

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Absolutely.

Q. As you've seen golf evolve in the Kingdom, how proud do you feel about that?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Very proud. I can't wait for the next generation to come and take my place in these tournaments. I got it by winning the Arab Senior Championship, but I'm sure it won't happen again because the young ones coming up are going to take my place.

Q. Last week you won?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Yes.

Q. You've got a bit of momentum coming into tomorrow?

PRINCE KHALID AL-FAISAL: Absolutely. Cross my fingers. We'll see.
