Q. Well played today. How do you feel about your round?

ADAM BRESNU: It was tough. It was really long. I shot 74, plus-3. The putts didn't want to go in. I was really frustrated. After I made a bogey, then a birdie after another bogey.

It was a tough round because I think I played really good just my putting was not there. When you don't make putts, mentally it's complicated. I tried to be patient like yesterday. It didn't work.

But you know, it's golf. I hope tomorrow's going to be a better round.

Q. Is there anything you hope to do differently or something you want to do differently tomorrow?

ADAM BRESNU: Making a lot of putts. That's what you want in golf. If you make long putts -- if you make putts in general, you're going to play low for sure. I just want that.

No pressure. The goal is to have fun. I did have fun today. It was tough, but I had good partners. It was good to watch them.

Q. Do you feel you learned anything from your partners today?

ADAM BRESNU: I mean, I played one time with Scott Vincent. I know he's a really, really good player. So I know he's game. He was strong the whole round. He didn't make a lot of mistakes. He had one and then had an up-and-down, so that was nice.

I know I'm not too far from them for sure. I know if I play my A golf, I may be better than them at golf. But today was not my good golf day. You know, it happens.

... when all is said, we're done.®
