the Rolex series. I played it last year, and I hope I'm going to play it this year too, I mean, 2026.

Q. Nice job today. What do you think of the 18th?
What a way to finish.

ADAM BRESNU: It felt nice. Hit a perfect 3-wood. I thought it was in the fairway, but it was in the rough, and that pin was really tricky. Hit a really good shot, but the ball just bounced, just rolled. They're super firm and went back of the green.

I told my caddie, I was like I don't know what to do. I was like, you know what, I'm going to flop it, just having fun. I flopped it, and it was a perfect shot, and it went in. So that's a good feeling.

Q. Fantastic. In terms of more broadly today, 3-under par. How did you think your game was today?

ADAM BRESNU: To be honest, it was not that good, I think. I didn't take a lot of greens, me as someone who takes a lot of fairways in regulation, two putts and sometimes one putt. But today was really different. I had a lot of up and downs. It was more like the first or second round.

But that's golf. If your iron game isn't present, you have to fight, which is what I did. Happy I shot 3-under.

Q. Looking ahead, what's next for you? What's next on the agenda?

ADAM BRESNU: A vacation. I mean, I don't know. Now I have to go back to college. I have exams, and I really don't want to but don't have a choice.

I think December I don't have any tournaments. I'm just going to go back to see my family, back to Morocco. It's been a long time since I've seen them.

Yeah, I'm going to practice really hard, and I hope I'm going to have an invite for the Hero Dubai Desert Classic,
