Q. Will you just talk about the rounds today. Is there anything special that happened?

YASSMIN NASSIF: Whenever I'm playing a Pro-Am, honestly, it's so much fun because you get to have really close interactions with the pros, and they're always so helpful and so kind, and it's a great learning experience as an amateur.

Q. Anything special you learned from Maha?

YASSMIN NASSIF: The whole experience was special. The whole time she was giving me tips and helping me with my swing. I learned a lot about the game that I didn't know before. It's a great learning experience.

Q. You know that Maha is the first female Arabic player playing with the LET? How does that make you feel?

YASSMIN NASSIF: It's so inspiring. It just gives me hope and makes me excited for the future. She's someone to look up to.

Q. What was the impact of Ladies First Club on this and the practice they're giving you?

YASSMIN NASSIF: I feel like there was so much support from Golf Saudi, and having the Ladies First Club was a great way to learn more about the game and really be in touch with the game of golf.

Q. Any other advice you would give for Ladies First Club, the changes that happened the last year?

YASSMIN NASSIF: Yes, stay consistent, and I think they should be more excited for the future because there are things happening.

Q. So you would advise more people to be part of Ladies First?

YASSMIN NASSIF: A hundred percent.
