Quick Quotes

Q. Round of 3-under. How would you reflect on it?

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, I hit it really good. Had a bunch of lip-outs and close calls on my putts unfortunately, but that's golf.

Sometimes, most of the time they don't go in, so I'm happy with 3-under. Kind of battled back after having an iffy front nine.

Q. Yeah, good finish and also a good finish for the team as well. You secured a Top 5 finish. How was that this week? Obviously all done now and you can concentrate on the individual tomorrow, but just reflect on the team side of it this week.

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, it was a lot of fun. Emma played really well today. I think she shot 5-under on her own ball, so that definitely helped in the team aspect.

But we didn't make one bogey. We didn't lose a shot at all this week. I think that's most important. We all played solid and we had each other's back, so it was fun.

Q. Looking ahead to tomorrow, going to be obviously in the final group alongside your sister. I think you've only been in the final group one other time with her, correct me if I'm wrong.

NELLY KORDA: Probably once.

Q. Yeah. Clearly the Korda family will be tuning into tomorrow. She's got quite a lead, but I guess everything is gettable in golf. I guess you're looking forward to tomorrow. Tell me your thoughts about it.

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, I think it'll be fun. Pauline is playing really well too and I think she's a shot closer to her, but you never know. You don't know what the wind is going to be like tomorrow. It could be blowing a lot more than it was today.

It's golf and you always have a chance, and I'm going to stay positive going into tomorrow.

Q. Lastly, how are you feeling? Are you feeling okay? It's been a long day out there; earlier start tomorrow. Energy must be pretty low.

NELLY KORDA: Yeah, it's almost 9:00 p.m. and I don't -- would've not imagined playing until 9:00 p.m. Feels like I had a rain delay in the start of the round and then I was finishing up my round later in the evening.

But I feel good. Getting over a little bit of a cold from last week, but I feel good.
