Q. Walk me through the chip on 15.

WYNDHAM CLARK: Chipping out at TGL is pretty easy other than the rough area. I hit a poor chip, but it comes to come out dead, and I just gave it a little extra. It was a poor chip, but it's tough because sometimes it's downgrain, sometimes it's straight up, and when we were doing it, we tried to get a good lie and it just sat down and I misjudged it.

Q. Min, your 37-foot putt on 9, your putting tonight was pretty precise. What does that say about your comfort level throughout the TGL season?

MIN WOO LEE: Yeah, slowly just got better. I love playing here. It's fun. Yeah, I was nervous today, and I got to show some good shots, which is nice, especially putting-wise. I feel like it's not my most confident skill, but it's slowly getting there, and I'm happy with the progress, and yeah.

Q. Wyndham, what do you think the next 24, 48 hours will be like just processing it, and how long do you think this will stay with you guys?

WYNDHAM CLARK: It sucks right now. We were walking in, and we were like, I don't know how we just lost. They did everything they could. Tom Kim made three huge putts and then obviously a hole-in-one. So I feel like they did a lot of stuff amazing, and we did a lot of good stuff, and it sucks. I have a long flight home to Arizona, and I'm sure once I land from that I'll be over it. But it hurts because I
