PGA CHAMPIONSHIP

A Rolex Series Event

Q. 15-under par total for three rounds, 18 birdies and an eagle so far. What's been the secret to making so many?

ALEX NOREN: Well, I don't know, I mean I hit some good iron shots. I think my irons have been better than my wedges, and then pretty good off the tee today, and especially Thursday was great. The lift, clean and place, it's really tricky if you're in the rough. So it helps a lot to hit it a little bit straighter.

But it's been a wonderful three days, a lot of fun out there.

Q. Chasing down Adrian Saddier, clubhouse leader, 15-under. He finished, birdie, birdie, eagle. How good was that?

ALEX NOREN: Amazing. I was a little bit angry after my kind of unforced bogey on 13, the middle of the fairway, in between clubs, and tried to hit a hard nine and just duffed it.

And then played better coming in, and then holed a long one on 16. You know, when you get a little bit of fortune like that, it kind of makes 17 and 18 easier.

Q. You've told us in the past that playing with a chance to win a big championship on Sunday is so exciting and you love it so much. You've won this championship before, shooting 62 in the final round. It's the Flagship Event. Your thoughts on tomorrow?

ALEX NOREN: Yeah, it's going to be so much fun. I love this. I'm going to work a little bit with my coach now and pick out a few shots that I didn't feel comfortable over and do some putting stuff, and just get prepared for tomorrow with a clear mind what to do. It's so much fun, yeah.
