Q. What's the more challenging conditions this afternoon? 67, you must be thrilled about that.

LUDVIG ABERG: Yeah, definitely. I thought it was difficult. Obviously the wind was a big factor today, it was swirling. You're meant to have the west wind coming this way and you can't feel it going this way, so it definitely increases the difficulty level a little bit, but I felt like we managed it really well today and yeah, happy with the finish for sure.

Q. You had a nice string of birdies coming in, as well.

LUDVIG ABERG: Yeah, I wasn't really driving it that well today. I felt like I was missing a lot of fairways. So obviously after I was a bit annoyed with myself, leaving that one out to the right, make it double, so it was nice to finish that way. Definitely, obviously 17, 18 were par 5s, but you still have to hit shots, they're difficult par 5s. I'm definitely pleased with that.

Q. You must have been looking forward to this week after a strong top five of the Tour Championship, a little bit of rest time. How are you feeling about the week ahead?

LUDVIG ABERG: Yeah, definitely. This is one of my favourite events of the year.

I really enjoy coming here. and this is my third time playing here and I've loved it every time, so yeah, it's definitely circled on my calendar. I'm pleased to be here, and hopefully we can keep playing some good golf.
