

ISPS Handa Senior Open

Saturday, July 26, 2025

Berkshire, England, United Kingdom

Sunningdale GC

Greg Chalmers

Quick Quotes

Q. Bogey-free round of 66, for an 8-under total. What are the things falling into place for you this week?

GREG CHALMERS: I really didn't play that well on Monday. I didn't strike the ball very well at all.

Sometimes stress can sort of make you go to work, and so I had a really good practise session yesterday morning before my round and shot another 4-under there yesterday and continued that today. Not a great deal of mistakes. Not in a lot of trouble.

I didn't have a great deal of birdie chances, but I birdied the holes you probably need to, you know, some of the par 5s. It was a really solid round of golf.

It's tough to get some of the holes out there that you would like to sneak in to make an even lower round but you've got to see maybe a 20-, 30-footer roll in. I'm pleased with how I'm holing out from sort of four to six feet, and things have been going nicely. I'm happy the last two days.

Q. We don't know what score will be leading going into tomorrow, but how many shots behind do you feel you can be and have a realistic chance to win?

GREG CHALMERS: It's a great question. I really don't know. It would depend on who is leading. I would imagine it's Harrington right now, is it? He's obviously very confident at the moment and a world-class player. The closer the better.

Ultimately it's going to take, I would imagine, some really good golf from me, regardless of who is leading or what's going on because you rarely get to just coast around and win the Senior British Open.

FastScripts by ASAP Sports