Quick Quotes

Q. Four birdies and five bogeys, 69. How does that one leave you feeling?

PETER BAKER: Fine. It's a tough day. Difficult. There's always going to be mistakes out there. I made a few unforced errors with putting but was good. I played nicely. Put myself in good spots and cut out mistakes and we'll be okay.

Q. You eagled 10 two days in a row.

PETER BAKER: Today a good drive and a 4-wood to about 40-foot pin-high trying to get it close. Fortunately for me, it fell in. It's been a good hole.

Q. Two top six finishes in your last three starts on the legend tour. Something clicked in the game?

PETER BAKER: I didn't realise that. It's slowly getting betterment it's been a bit of a slow start. Like today, played nicely for a few holes and throw some mistakes in. Haven't really been getting the momentum many my rounds to go really low. I think it's slowly come back. Today was a positive, so happy with that.
