Quick Quotes

Q. Really nice start, 68. How would you assess that?

ADRI ARNAUS: Well, yeah, I'm really proud, honestly, because it's a very tricky course and even more with these conditions. So yeah, I just kept it in play quite well and I took advantage of some opportunities. Yeah, happy with day one.

Q. How patient do you have to be out there considering these conditions?

ADRI ARNAUS: Yeah, extremely patient. I mean, you just have to really commit to the shot you want to hit. Really, also, think what is the best place to be, and just execute that. It's very small greens and the pins are quite tucked, honestly, so yeah, you've got to be smart out there and do your best.

Q. Only one bogey on the card as well, considering those conditions and how tough it is out there, how proud are you of that?

ADRI ARNAUS: Yeah, of course. The thing about it, one bogey, it's best you can ask, really, with these conditions.

Then yeah, I just tried to play steady golf, even though it wasn't easy, but actually on the back nine, I felt like I had a few opportunities, so I'm happy with that.

Q. I know you've had a tricky season but how much are you hoping that playing at home might change fortunes for you?

ADRI ARNAUS: Yeah, look, it's been not an easy season, but you know, always looking forward to the next day, to the next tournament, and yeah, obviously I feel the vibe here in Spain. So I'm looking forward to the next three days.
