Quick Quotes

Q. Two off the lead as it stands, talk me through your round.

DAVID PUIG: It was a good day. Less windy for sure than the last two days. I think I did a good job of hitting it good off the tee, and you know, hit it close sometimes.

You know, it was an in-between round, but I was super steady, bogey-free and made putts. Super excited for tomorrow.

Q. What was your mindset going into today, home open, two more days with the Spanish crowds?

DAVID PUIG: I think for some reason, I was pretty relaxed. I knew that the last two days were super tough. So I was expecting something a little easier today for sure, and super relaxed. Played pretty steady golf again, and hit very good shots.

So yeah, hopefully tomorrow we are still one or two or three off the lead and we have a chance.

Q. And as it stands tomorrow, you might be playing with Hidalgo and Rahm. That would be an all-Spanish setup. How would that feel?

DAVID PUIG: Hopefully we have that group for tomorrow. I think it's going to be unreal if that happens. So yeah, I mean, hopefully we play all together and one of us gets the victory.
