Quick Quotes

Q. How did it feel out there?

SEBASTIAN MUNOZ: It felt good. It felt like I left a couple out. Honestly I felt like I played really good coming in. I hit a lot of quality shots. Maybe in my head I got a little ahead of myself but I felt like I'm in a good position, feel like I'm playing good golf, so why not.

Q. We have had two days of weather disruptions. How do you cope with it?

SEBASTIAN MUNOZ: I feel like today I benefited. Yesterday it didn't really affect me I was at the villa when they suspended the game. So I wasn't feeling myself when they suspended the play and then after it I started playing a lot better. So today it helped me.

Q. Just a couple of shots behind the lead. Thoughts about the weekend.

SEBASTIAN MUNOZ: A big chance, why not dream big and hope for something special.

Q. What would it mean for Colombian golf?

SEBASTIAN MUNOZ: Huge. I think this week a lot of eyes are on the Olympics, more than -- on golf -- more than the usual week, so I think it would be, Colombian golf would be the one that would benefit the most.
