Quick Quotes

Q. Quite a difference a day makes. Much better today?

STEPHANIE MEADOW: Yeah, much better, trending in the right direction. A lot of fighting out there today. It wasn't pretty but I got the job done.

Q. It's such a tough golf course, really?

STEPHANIE MEADOW: Yeah, it is. The rough is very penal and you've got to keep it in the short stuff. Hit some really good shots and chipped in twice today. That helped. Couldn't get the putter going. Overall, decent day and maybe I can get under par tomorrow and move up some more.

Q. Lots and lots of Irish support. That must help, too.

STEPHANIE MEADOW: That was great. Back-to-back groups were Ireland, which was great. You see all the flags and cheers, and I saw a lot of familiar faces from back-in-the-day golf. You know, old Team Ireland staff. It was really fun to see them out again. You're wearing a flag and you're playing for your country. Trying to do my best and playing for pride at this point.

Q. What will the plan be this evening? Will you watch Rhasidat?

STEPHANIE MEADOW: Absolutely. We've had a busy few days. It's nice to putt the feet up for a bit but yes, we will be watching. I think a nice dinner all together and try to get ready for tomorrow.
