MAYAKOBA 2024

Q. With all four rounds counting tomorrow, it seems like the captains were in pretty good agreement about that?

CAM SMITH: Yeah, I think so. I think a tougher test on Sunday for the teams is definitely probably a good thing. As far as like changing the result, I don't know if it would have changed the result much last year, but may have been an instance here or there. A bit more drama.

Q. Do you think there will be a lot more volatility on the leaderboard because of that, I assume?

CAM SMITH: I think specifically here because there's just so many holes where the tee shot demands such a good shot off the tee, and if you're not, you're dropping. A team could technically be up five or six with one hole to play, and it's really not over around here, so it'll be interesting.
