Q. How special is this?

JOAQUÍN NIEMANN: It's pretty hard to make it more special than this moment right now. I mean, this place is amazing. It was a good battle with Bryson, with Cam, so I'm happy to be in this position right now.

Q. With this win, you've locked up a spot in the U.S. Open. How much pressure does that take off you?

JOAQUÍN NIEMANN: Yeah, it's nice. I feel like I wanted to be there, so yeah, it's great to keep doing what I'm doing, hitting the ball great, making putts, and yeah, hopefully keep it rolling.

Q. Last year you came second in the season-long standings. What's the goal this year?

JOAQUÍN NIEMANN: Yeah, obviously try to get one more position than last year, so that will be pretty special.

Q. It makes it more special having your family, your friends, your wife and your teammates here, doesn't it, and this crowd?

JOAQUÍN NIEMANN: Yeah, it's special. My mom came all the way. I think the first time my mom has seen me win, so that's pretty cool. So yeah, I had my mom here, Didi, my wife, my friends, my team. It's been a really good couple months, so yeah, happy.
